Letter from the editor

About a week ago, I woke up and opened Teamliquid, just like every other day, and noticed I was almost at 28000 posts. So I started to think of how to celebrate such a milestone, and I knew I didn't want to make some fancy thread like most people do. "No," I thought, "I must do something else, something bigger than that. Something bigger than me." Then it hit me: "I'm going to be an editor for a fancy newspaper magazine."

I'm sure most of you were expecting something more epic, I did at first too. To be honest: I wanted to be superhero. You know who else was a superhero AND an editor? Clark Kent.

Maybe if Clark Kent stayed just an editor instead of being a superhero as well, he wouldn't have died to the hands of Doomsday.

Me? I'll just stay just an editor.

First New York, then the world

In case you live under a rock, I guess you are as excited as us to know Teamliquid got their own headquarters. Yes, we have people dedicated all day long to making this, an awesome place.

Ask us anything,
and feed our egos

Serious Business

Welcome Summoners!

TL opens up a new subforum, specially dedicated to League of Legends!

This is the second time TL opens a subforum for another game (the first one being Travian). If you want to play with some friendly names, or you just feel like beating that guy that called you a newbie in sc2, then register, download the game and hop onto the LiquidParty chat in the game itself. There's usually lots of people ready to play!

However, the best thing about this happening is that we get little tidbits of the relationship between Hot_Bid and R1CH.

[09:15] HotBid: microsoft security essentials is failing to update, did you update it yet
[09:15] R1CH: i don't use it
[09:15] HotBid: what anti virus do you use
[09:15] R1CH: none
[09:15] HotBid: how do you stop viruses and stuff
[09:16] R1CH: i don't get viruses
[09:16] Heyoka: he clearly goes into the computer and fights them himself
[09:16] HotBid: lol he shoots it with a gun
[09:16] R1CH: it's funny you say that
[09:16] R1CH: i actually made a quake 2 mod

[R1CH loads a Quake 2 map. HotBid plays.]

[09:16] R1CH: come on, you're dying to notepad
[09:17] HotBid: that's notepad? wtf is that flying thing behind it
[09:17] R1CH: firefox
[09:17] Heyoka: why is it so large
[09:17] R1CH: it uses more memory
[09:17] Heyoka: this is what's running right now? what happens when you kill one
[09:18] R1CH: the program closes
[09:18] R1CH: oh look, msn killed google update
[09:18] R1CH: one of the monsters is quake 2 so if you kill it the game just ends

[03:00] HotBid: what's anti-aliasing?
[03:00] R1CH: you use photoshop and you don't know what anti-aliasing is?
[03:00] HotBid: no
[03:00] R1CH: imagine aliasing -- its the opposite of that

I just had the weirdest experience right now. I just lost a match on Kulas Ravine, said GG and surrendered. as the screen went black a dragoon (yes, a dragoon) suddenly said "confirmed".

what the hell? has this happened to anyone else? i have no idea what i did to make this happen and i'm pretty sure i'm not crazy

10. THOU SHALL HAVE FUN

rel wrote:

It's just as hard on us terran. Let me explain... about 85% of the TvZ's I've played in the past two patches. Whenever I cripple my opponent and set up for the win. I get very snide remarks about "How can you play that imba race?", "Must be easy huh?". So on and so forth.

I play Terran because I have always played Terran... for 12 years. Because of Maynard, NTT(I know you new people don't know him.), [GG99]Slayer, and of course Boxer. Those were my hero's. I DON'T play Terran because I KNOW they are an imba race. Which maybe to a degree they're is an imbalance which I am not ashamed to admit.

rsol wrote:

I play terran mostly with an xbox 360 controller and a laptop trackpad and sometimes it's hard for me as well when people say mean things to me that hurt me in my heart, because I can't respond to them without a keyboard.

Fucking casuals

The reason I'm bringing this up is, it's not fun to play because of this, and I'm sure they're are many Terran players, that use to play Terran in brood war as well that's feeling like this.

Now I ask if you could please save your remarks for yourself, I'm sure your patches are coming, things take time unfortunately. It's a double edged sword. If you are a great terran player it will unfortunately get funneled down the imbalance hole.

Anyone else feel this way about the situation?

Thanks!

Korean Girl: (smiling)
Thank you for inviting me out, this place is great.

Artosis: I'm glad you came, I really wanted to see you again. Sometimes it's tough living out here, but meeting someone like you makes it so much better.

Korean Girl: That's sweet of you. I'm glad we met too, I love spending time with you. I never intended to have feelings like this, they just sort of snuck up on me.

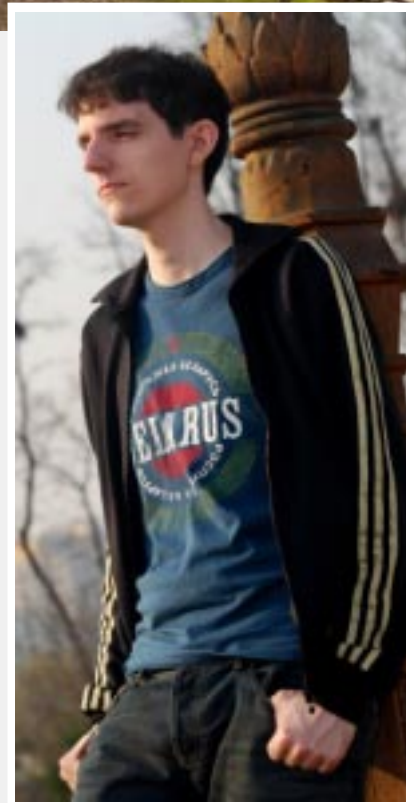

Artosis: Yeah, like a fucking DT.

Korean Girl: Pardon?

Artosis: You know, a DT. Dark Templar. The most imbalanced unit in the history of gaming. Some asshole goes, "Oh hey, let's take a zealot and give him a fucking super sword that can cut through any substance in the universe and kill any unit instantly. Oh, and let's make him invisible, because that's fair." ARE YOU FUCKING SERIOUS? AND MY OVERLORDS DON'T EVEN DETECT ANYMORE, I HAVE TO PAY 100 GAS JUST TO SEE HIM AND IF I MISS IT BY EVEN A SECOND ITS WHOOSH WHOOSH IN MY MINERAL LINE AND MY FUCKING DRONES ALL DIE TO ONE GOD DAMN UNIT THAT'S NOT EVEN BEING MICRO'D. DO YOU UNDERSTAND HOW IMBALANCED THAT IS? DO YOU?!?!

Korean Girl: I'm sorry... I forgot I have to... go home now and... wash my couch.

Yeah, I would say that's a good avilo impression

Avilo what is your opinion on how SlayerS_Boxer played today? I know you both agree that TvZ is hard and now I can kind of see why.

floor exercise wrote:

He played perfect, killing over nine thousand drones which were instantly reproduced at no cost of larva or resources to the zerg. His awkward elevator push into the back of zerg's main was flawlessly executed, moving the thors out of range of the tanks so that they both got wiped out with the greatest of ease. You might say to yourself "that's pretty dumb" but given that ZvT is a foregone conclusion and that roaches can just chill out 4 range away from things and shoot green shit like someone camping CT spawn with an AWP so you may as well just bend over and take it.

He is the Emperor of Terran. The sovereign ruler of an entire empire of terrans. If he can't win a ZvT, the game is broken, QED. Do you think it makes any logical sense for some pathetic nobody of a BW pro can wipe the floor with him and make his in game performance rival Tasteless' ability to cast/observe a game. A zerg, need I remind you, with drug references in his name. When was the last time you lost to some guy named Weedlord420 or something like that. Have we all forgot the sage anti drug slogan on arcade games circa mid 90s, "winners don't use drugs." Well someone remind Dustin Browder up in his comfy office in Blizz HQ because ZergBong just lit up Boxer and smoked his ass and probably won't even remember where he was the day after.
